Open Class Contest-Amateur/SemiPro

SOURDOUGH BREADS

For this contest, an amateur is defined as one who does not and has never earned any substantial part of income from baking, or has not extensive professional training or experience, or has never been considered a professional for any period of time. Semi professional is defined as one who has significant baking experience and may earn occasional income from baking but does not work as a full-time commercial baker.

Entries: Must be submitted Wednesday July 29, 2026 between 8am to 2pm. at the Bonneville County Fairgrounds located at 1542 E 73rd S, Idaho Falls ID 83404. No entries will be accepted after this time.

Conditions: All breads must be naturally fermented, hand shaped loaves (no commercial yeasts may be used). All Bread exhibits must be placed on a paper plate and inserted into Ziplock bags or paper bags. The recipe must accompany the entry.

Judging Criteria: Judges are looking for general appearance (oven spring, scoring and color), aroma, flavor and crumb texture.

Entries will be on display to the public at the Exhibit building from July 31-Aug 6 and will be released on August 7th from 9am to 1pm.

To Enter:
Fill out the form below for each entry. There must be a minimum of 5 entries in a class to qualify for a contest. If not enough entries, no premium will be awarded, and entry fee will be returned. Judges will determine if an entry will be awarded a premium.
